

Weed Alert!

Tufted wallabygrass

Tufted wallabygrass

(Rytidosperma caespitosum)

Mature Size Knee

Description

- Up to 3 ft. tall perennial grass
- Tufted seedheads 2-4 in. long, densely hairy, very bristly, green to purplish, becoming straw-colored with maturity
- Fringe of hairs at junction of leaf sheath and blade
- Leaf blades ~ 10 in. long, very narrow, highly variable in appearance, very hairy or smooth
- Reproduces by seed
- Spread by roads, waterways, horticulture
- Native to southern Australia

Bloom Period May - Jul

Habitat Grassland, desert, roadsides, disturbed sites

Can be confused with...

2-Minute Removal Pull

California oatgrass

(Danthonia californica)

a native bunchgrass which:

- Is dense and 1 ½ ft. tall
- Has 4-10 in. long, dull leaves
- Slender flowering stalks to 3 ft. tall

